MARINES KILLED IN NICARAGUA

THREE MEN ARE BADLY HURT IN AUTO SMASHUP

STATE AND NAVY DEPARTMENTS CONCEAL FACTS

Casualties of Month Ago Hidden to Prevent Investigation

The astounding allegation that there have been American casualties with fatalities in Nicaragua, is contained in the accompanying article in the New York Daily Mirror.

The Mirror charges that the facts given to them have been concealed by rigid censorship by the state and navy departments in Washington.

The Mirror asserts that the source of its information is absolutely trustworthy and adequately informed on the subject, despite denials from Nicaragua. (Copyright 1927, Universal Service.)

NEW YORK, March 1.—American marines have been killed and wounded in Nicaragua.

The state and navy departments have concealed this fact. Rigid censorship has prevented any leak prior to this exclusive story in the Daily Mirror. Only 48 hours ago the state and navy departments officially notified U. S. Senator Borah that there was no truth to reports of casualties in the Nicaraguan campaign.

Today an announcement came from Washington stating that a troop train had been fired on. It said no one had been injured.

Two or three marines have been killed and half a dozen wounded, according to information given to the Daily Mirror. There are now (Continued on Page 8)

FLIERS BUILD GOOD WILL IN SOUTH AMERICA

(By Universal Service)
(Special Cable Dispatch)

BUENOS AIRES, March 1.—The American good will fliers—in life and death—have accomplished their mission of good will in Argentina.

The survivors will hop off tomorrow for Asuncion, Paraguay. When the eight United States airmen arrived here last Saturday there was a growing sentiment here against the United States. The press was constantly criticizing the American policy in Nicaragua.

Newspapers paid little attention to the progress of the good will fliers but devoted considerable space to charges of "imperialism" on the part of the United States. Their daring maneuvering and their perfect formation won them their instant applause. Then came the tragic collision in which two of the brave men lost their lives.

Like a sudden veering of the wind, sentiment toward the United States changed.

"Men of such intrepidity must represent a nation of great people heretofore misunderstood," the newspapers commented.

La Razon, which has previously attacked the United States, today published an editorial under the caption "Solidity," declaring "in the presence of death it is necessary to admit the truth—the conquerors of the air, after crossing the mountains and seas, were now received in Buenos Aires with the enthusiasm commensurate with their bravery. This was because the flag covering them was thought to be the symbol of an international policy that created hostilities.

Window Unveiling Is Featured By Local Merchants

Bulgin Revival Services Open To Large Crowds

Owing to the fact that there was some misunderstanding between the local committee and the company it was not possible to open the Union Revival Campaign in the tent last night. The meeting was held in the First Christian Church, where a large crowd was assembled to hear the opening message of Evangelist Elwood J. Bulgin.

Dr. Bulgin delivered a most scholarly and convincing sermon on the topic "What I Believe and Why I Believe It." The music was highly entertaining as well as inspirational. Prof. Roy Gourley and Charles Clark rendered several duets and solos including some Negro Spirituals which were well received. Services will be open tonight at 7:30 at the tent located at Ninth street and Nevin avenue.

House Passes Protective Bill For Dam Rights

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 1.—A bill to prevent the Federal Power company from granting permits for power plants on the Colorado river until after the close of the 70th Congress next year, was favorably reported by the House interstate and foreign commerce committee.

Representative Taylor (D) of Colorado, who filed the bill, said its purpose was to prevent private power companies from grabbing valuable sites on the river before the Swing-Johnson bill is passed.

It would also give the seven states in the Colorado river basin an opportunity to effect an agreement on the Boulder Dam project, he said.

"There are 25 or 30 applications pending before the federal power commission, and the secretary of the interior says that he has no authority to withhold permits, once applications have been properly made," said Taylor, adding:

"If private power companies get a grip on the Colorado river, it will be difficult to pry them loose when the time comes to put through the Boulder Dam bill."

Liquor Bill Is Passed In House

By ARTHUR HACHTEN
(Staff Correspondent)

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 1.—After being heavily laden with amendments and kicked about in three hours of hectic warfare, the administration's medicinal liquor bill finally was approved by the house today and sent to the senate, the vote was 209 to 151.

With congress adjourning Friday and the senate paralyzed by a legislative jam, prospects of the bill becoming law were considered dim.

Action On Slush Fund Is Blocked

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Senate was "flustered" into the hours of stagnation today while Republican leaders successfully blocked action on the resolution of Senator James A. Reed (D) of Missouri, extending the life of the "slush fund" investigating committee after Congress adjourns.

Incensed at the obstructing tactics, Senator Reed, chairman of the committee, declared he will call up his resolution again tomorrow. If it is blocked again, Reed gave warning that he is prepared to keep the Senate in session all night on the prohibition reorganization bill.

With time at a premium, Senators sat idle while the Daily Journal was read at the insistence of Senator Moses of New Hampshire, for the first time since 1923.

Senator David A. Reed (R) of Pennsylvania started the obstructionist tactics with the hope of delaying action on the Missouri resolution and thus preventing the special slush fund committee from continuing its probe into the Vane-Wilson election after March 4.

Unless this authority is granted, it is feared the committee may have to abandon its probe, or else proceed with the knowledge that its activities may be halted by court action.

Reed began the filibuster by insisting that the cloture rule, invoked yesterday to hasten passage of the prohibition reorganization bill, applied to the usual Senate morning hour when the "slush" resolution was scheduled for a vote.

FOREIGNERS TO BE PROTECTED IN CHINA ZONE

Forces Concentrated in Shanghai as Eve of Battle Approaches

(By Universal Service)

SHANGHAI, March 1.—Further moves for the protection of the foreign settlement in the Chinese war zone were taken today.

The British forces are well distributed and artillery contingents of over 500 officers and men arrived from Bombay today. A heavy field battery was included in the complement.

Men of the Bedford and Hertfordshire regiments are billeted on the race course near here and another border battalion disembarked from another transport and encamped in the Yangtse Poo district.

It is believed that these additional precautions to safeguard the lives of all foreigners in the battle area were taken because of the imminence of a decisive fight.

The northern armies now have about 40,000 soldiers on the Sun Kiang front. Feng-tien troops continue to come in from the north to Sun Kiang and it is reported that a concentrated attack on the left flank of the Cantonese is planned.

The Cantonese strategy is aimed at the dividing the northern troops by a counter driving in the direction of Nanking.

A Spanish warship is anchored in the harbor, augmenting the foreign forces.

Is Enthused By Response To Pay Prompt Campaign

Al Abrahams, chairman of the Pay Promptly campaign of the Richmond Credit Rating bureau, is highly enthused over the splendid reaction to the program so far, according to an interview last night.

"The poster and newspaper publicity campaign has brought splendid results," as evinced by the numerous inquiries at the office of the local bureau and the request for non members for window cards in order that they may co-operate in putting the program over right," declared Abrahams.

"Everyone really intends to pay his bills promptly," he declared. "Most people carry out the intention. Some, however, put off and become slow pay."

Some experience temporary financial difficulty and many of these have come to the credit bureau and expressed the appreciation of the merchants' efforts to make "Pay Promptly" habit more general."

"The fact that these people promise to pay is sufficient assurance to the merchant and he is always glad to frankly talk over the situation or arrange plans where the bills can be paid to the satisfaction of all concerned," he continued.

"There is a great deal of satisfaction in knowing that your credit standing rates high, for this brings up the standard of your community in which you live and after all we are all working for a bigger and better Richmond."

Official Paper Of The City Of Richmond, California

WITH THE CURRENT IT'S EASIER TO SWIM

Contending for twenty or thirty years with inborn devilishness of human nature is apt to warp any judgment and the most beautiful tribute we can think of for Judge Ben Lindsey is that his contacts have not sprung his conscience, also. He is now advocating a laissez faire policy with respect to the particular human failing which has to do with the wonderful animal instincts by which the race is carried on.

Judge Lindsey has fought against the viciousness of depraved tastes and the weaknesses of frail humanity until he now sees the solution not in further fighting, but in standardizing and systematizing the more secret habits of the people. In his discovery that men will be men where females are concerned, he is giving the world nothing that it has not known. He does not go so far as some of our finest and most lovably human ancestors have gone, but he does borrow from the most cultivated race the world has ever known, the appellation for his system of openly conducted and frankly useful bawdy houses.

What he does not recognize is the peculiar quirk in human nature that drives men persistently to seek that which is forbidden. The enjoyment of untrammelled concubinage will never in the Anglo-Saxon civilization which we have built up, displace the occasional meandering of both the male and female of itching desires.

Germany maintained her former royalty at a cost of $10,000,000 a year. The presidency this year is to cost only $226,000. During the monarchy Prussia alone paid the Hohenzollerns $4,500,000 annually.

Two hundred and fifty years ago, Paris had but a thousand carriages. Today about 700,000 vehicles of all kinds are in her streets. Old writings indicate that her traffic problem was as serious then as now.

Last year was the first since 1917 when deaths from tuberculosis in New York City had not been less than the previous year, according to the Tuberculosis and Health associations.

Religion is the best armor in the world but the worst cloak.

Reputation serves to virtue as light does to a picture.

Men Who Made the World

A WRITER OF THE PERIOD DESCRIBES RICHARD THUS: "HE WAS LOFTY IN STATURE, OF SHAPELY BUILD, WITH HAIR HALF WAY BETWEEN RED AND YELLOW. HIS LIMBS WERE STRAIGHT AND FLEXIBLE, HIS ARMS SOMEWHAT LONG AND FOR THIS YOUR READER BETTER FITTED THAN MOST MEN TO GRASP ON WHATEVER THE SWORD. HIS FEATURES SHOWED THAT HE WAS THE VALOR OF HECTOR, THE MAGNANIMITY OF ACHILLES; HE WAS NO WHIT INFERIOR TO ALEXANDER, OR LESS THAN ROLAND IN MANHOOD."

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink. Owing to the large number of letters received, only a few can be answered. No reply can be made to queries of this newspaper. Name you, city on your return envelope. Don't say "city."

ONE LESS RIVER TO CROSS

The old hermit sadly shook his head. Life had held for him only endless sorrows. He was 50 years old and no one would have suspected it, for he looked 80. "Yes, indeed," he sighed, "I have had a lot of troubles. That is why my hair is white. Yes, a lot of troubles—a dreamy look came in his eyes—"I can't tell now what they were, for most of them never happened."

Mrs. J. L. M. writes: "Please answer in your column how I can overcome worrying over a great fear. I am nearing the age of change of life and I worry continually over the effect of the ordeal. Day and night my mind is on it, and I find I can't do my work as well as I used to. I get to thinking about it at night and can't sleep. I wonder what form it will take with me. My health has always been good until now, but I have heard of so many women who seemed to have fine health until the change came."

It would be more accurate to say they had excellent health until the change bogy got 'em.

I suppose it won't help a bit for me to say in my arbitrary way that there is no such thing as change of life. How can I say such things when old Dr. Piller and the late Amelia Greenham have said a thousand times that it is practically all that ever ails women more than 30 years old? Ain't women of middle age or older taking sick and dying every day? If it ain't change of life what is the matter with 'em, if I'm so smart?

Just lately there has been a serious effort to put off a change of life obsession on the men, too, and I haven't any doubt at all that if some great away authority such as Sir Arbuthnot Lane (who has recently broken into the newspaper health game) were to give the notion solemn sanction a lot of overpaid, overfed and underworked gentlemen would seize upon it eagerly as a suitable explanation for their physical degeneration and a suitable excuse for dodging the periodic health examination.

I mention Sir Arbuthnot because, judging by the stuff and nonsense this patho publicist has propagated about the dreadful consequences of constipation or intestinal stasis I imagine he could turn out a whole of an argument in behalf of the change of life bogy for gentlemen.

Once more I beg to remind the credulous sex that menstruation is a function, not a disease and not a weakness in any sense, and its cessation around middle age is also a perfectly normal matter which never in any circumstances causes or explains any disturbance of a woman's health. When a woman finds that there is anything wrong with her health or when she thinks that there is anything not perfectly normal, she owes it to herself, her family and her world to submit her complaint or her anxiety immediately to the judgment of her physician, and this holds just as true for the woman of 30 or 20 as it does for the woman of 60 or 50. The gravest mistake a woman can make in regard to her own health and happiness is to trust to the well meant but seldom sound or safe advice of other women when she is confronted with any question of her own health.

Let every woman who reads this resolve to keep her mind at ease in the assurance that there is no "ordeal" or "crisis" about the menopause.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Two years ago I began using—(one of the many trade brands of mineral oil, liquid petrolatum)—a tablespoonful before going to bed. I had been bothered with constipation but since I began using this I have had no trouble. Is this oil injurious to the system in any way? (M. R.)

Answer—No, it is not absorbed, but merely acts as a lubricant in the intestine. It is the opinion of some physicians that the oil coats food particles with a film that retards or prevents digestion. If that be true the constant or habitual use of it is unwise. Why not omit the fillip after you have taken a bottle or two, and give nature a chance—nature will generally control the bowel function very well if not too much meddled with.

I suffer with dizzy spells at times. Do you think it is high or low blood pressure? Sometimes I think it is high and then again it seems low. (B. E. C.)

Answer—It is as likely just medium. However, it doesn't matter whether it is high, low or medium. I advise you not to waste any time thinking about blood pressure. Leave that entirely to the doctor's consideration.

In that very interesting letter from the mailman who doesn't take much stock in the old ladies' notions about exposure to cold and wet, the mailman said he was still taking his iodine ration and he thought it would be better if serious, conscientious drinkers would take iodine instead of liquor.

I am a serious, conscientious drinker, and I'd like to give it up if I don't will help. Am I to understand that the mailman had been such a drinker and found the iodine ration a cure. Just what does the iodine ration consist of? (B. B. B.)

Answer—No, I don't believe the mailman meant that. He meant to praise the benefit derived from the iodine ration. I take it, and he compared it with the "kick" a boozee seeks in liquor. At that, it may be that some people who crave, and use intoxicants would not feel such a craving if they received an adequate iodine ration. In food, medicine or water. The iodine ration the mailman referred to consists of one drop of common brown tincture of iodine (as folks insist on spelling it) taken dissolved in a glassful of water each day in the months of March, June, September and December, or any other four months.

YOUR BOY AND YOUR GIRL

Only questions of general interest answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamp, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. WANTS TO GO TO WORK

Usually a case of spring fever, although it is liable to break out any time. At 14 I had a severe attack and unbeknown to my parents skipped school and got a job in the bank, in fact the same bank with which my father did business. Everything ran smoothly for ten days because I knew about the time father showed up with his daily deposit. But one day he came again in the afternoon to negotiate a loan and I was caught, good and plenty.

Caught at what? Well, for one thing caught at deceit, and another thing caught, as many other boys are caught, with the desire TO DO SOMETHING and not go to school to LEARN ABOUT SOMETHING. I was not interested in writing out imaginary checks, payable to imaginary people, on the funds of an imaginary bank. I wanted to handle real checks in a real bank. I did not want to ask Dad for a quarter here and a quarter there, telling him I needed a new note-book, when as a matter of fact I needed a dollar to send a bunch of violets to my latest Valentine. FOR, AFTER ALL, WASN'T I A MAN?

Yes, for about ten days, then I found out I was only a son and a school boy—and back I marched to school. This was my first and last attack of that very prevalent disease called "DISCARDSCHOOL-ITIS."

Here's a letter:

"Dear Dr. Dean:
"Our only child, a 14-year-old boy, a very nice boy, too, does not seem to care anything about school. He played truant a week before I found it out, consequently he is behind in his studies."

"I saw the principal and he said the boy was very good in his conduct, but simply would not study. He would open his book, but his mind would be miles away. And now he comes home with this note from the principal:

"Your boy is firmly convinced he wishes to leave school and is merely coming to school because he has to. Sooner or later if this state of affairs continues there will be trouble. I have come to the conclusion that it is best for him to try work for a while and if he obtains work he can get a working card to cover the state requirements."

"Some good may come of the experiment. The boy is wasting his time now."

"Should I send my boy back to school, Dr. Dean, if it is only to occupy a seat?"

Well, mother, let me answer your question with a page from my own history. At the time I started out to become a banker as above described, my father said to me: "Arthur, if you are so anxious to work and earn money, I will give you all the chance you want in my store. Have a good business and would like to leave it to you. It is just as good a business as the banking business. But you make a great mistake if you care more about a few dollars a week than you do about an education. Education is something that never can be taken away from you so long as you have any part of your body above the collar button."

I do not know what would have happened if father had remained in good health, but within a month he was taken seriously ill and was out for over a year. I went to school five hours a day, opened his store at 6 in the morning, closed it at 7 in the night, except 10 p. m. Saturday, took care of all the money, made the deposits, negotiated and paid loans—and believe me, Mother, I was the happiest boy in the world when my father got back into that store. I had had all the work and all the money to handle I wanted, and I was mighty glad to go back to the comparatively soft snap of going to school for five hours a day. And, more important, I had seen, in this contact with the world of reality, that an Education DOES count.

A school boy dislikes school, will not study, and accomplishes nothing, isn't he learning a series of bad habits? Isn't the effect bad? In high schools where there are several courses, including vocational ones, it is often possible to transfer a boy to a course where there is considerable activity work. Many cities have part-time schools, where a boy can work part time and go to school part time, and where the school work is related to his daily employment.

I suggest making one more attempt—here's the recipe:

First, the pertinent suggestions in my leaflet "How to Study," and secondly a letter from me written directly to your boy pointing out the value of educational training.

OUR CONVERSATION CORNER

Why?

Please tell our club why girls go wrong.

CHAIRMAN.

ANSWER—For the same reason we all may "go wrong." We don't know any better or haven't even brains enough to know. Even if we care we don't expect to be found out.

Specifically, unfortunate experiences occur in childhood due to adult degenerates or the wrong companions. Second, overweight, overheight, early physical growth before mental maturity. Third, losing her head (assuming that she ever had one). Fourth, lack of idealism and feelings of good taste and beauty. Fifth, desire at risk of reputation to be popular. Sixth, lack of a home where confidences are exchanged and where the parents themselves live a life of fine ideals and practices.

Politeness for Beginners!

WHAT'S WRONG HERE

ANSWER—If a gentleman sees a lady on the street with whom he wishes to converse, he must not stop her, but should accompany her in the direction in which she is going. The gent in this picture is probably ignorant of this little touch of courtesy, else he would not be so a made as to publicly display such bauchery. He is liable to offend the lady and cause her to look upon his advances with scorn and harsh words.

SYNOPSIS
Bill Grimm, risen to the front ranks of heavyweight boxing, is signed to meet the champion, Barbara Baxter in his fiancée and manager of his tea-shop. Carlton Herne, Pansy Pilkington (his fiancée) and Butch Ford, fight manager, are his friends. Herne and Pansy go with Bill and Barbara on their marriage trip the day of the fight. Jack Fairfax, Butch's enemy, tries to wreck them in his automobile.

I was afraid to wrestle the wheel away from him, for the speed at which he was traveling would have made the slightest slip a case of "Good morning, St. Peter!" All around. I tried to reason with this crazy fiend, but I got absolutely nowhere. The only one which kept their head in what looked like the death car was my Barbara. Reaching forward from the back, she switched off the ignition with a sudden, unlooked-for turn of her hand. Fairfax swore savagely and moved his head—in time for his jaw to connect with my pay-off left hook!

He slumped down in the seat a total loss, and I grabbed the wheel, bringing the car to a stop on the edge of a ditch. Married and nearly bumped off in the same hour, Pansy was two inches from a swoon, but Barbara and Herne asked her one of it. While they were engaged in that pastime, I dragged Fairfax out of the car, propped him up against a tree at the side of the road and left him there. He then heaped up upon me—the reports of our wild dash through these little towns would take care of that! Then I jumped in, stepped on the starter and we continued our daylight journey to New York. All I had to do after that little nerve-testing thriller was to try and punch my way into the world's heavyweight title!

I nearly had to box Butch Ford first. My strange absence had him fit to be chained by the time I reached the dressing-room, after seeing that Barbara, Pansy and Herne got their ringside seats.

I finally wrestled myself free and took a solid drive in the stomach on the break. It was the hardest punch the champion had taken on me during the fight, and it buckled my knees. As he rushed in to take advantage of my distress, I established him twice with a left to his

I grabbed the wheel, bringing the car to a stop....

However, lack of time shut off Butch's bawling out and in a few minutes I was in the ring with him, nothing but a technical count over his tired nose, missed a left hook, but connected with a right to the side of the head and again the champ fell to the mat, a beaten man if there ever was one! Eighty thousand madmen gathered around the ring was splitting the air with their roars. The heavyweight title was in my right glove—at last I'd reached the top of the heap!

Add this up! The champion staggered to his feet at nine, barely beating the count—in fact, many swore afterward he's actually been counted out on that fifth knockdown. Be that as it may, I fairly ran at him and let fly a right-hand punch just as the bell rung. I tried to pull the blow, but it landed on his jaw a split second after the going. That's a thing which often happens in a bout where both boys are trying—you've seen it yourself. It's a technical foul, but never claimed or penalized even in a preliminary fight, as its delivery is purely a accident.

But the champ's handlers were smart! They knew I was going to sayo their man, and they've been watching eagerly for a chance to save his title. So the instant my punch landed after the bell they jumped into the ring, bellowing "Foul!" Dazed and sick from the shattering he'd just took, the champion then pulled one of the funniest gags in the history of boxing. I guess me and my camp was the only ones which didn't see the trick in it. What does this jabber do when he hears his seconds claim a foul but clap both gloves over his stomach and sink to the floor, twisting his face like he's in great agony. He holds his stomach and I'd clipped him on the jaw! Even the hard-boiled ringriders were panicked by this one, but after a minute's hesitation the referee waves me to my corner, reaches down and holds up the champion's glove, giving him the fight on a foul!

Then, with a weird howl, Left Hook O'Brien took a punch at the referee, Butch Ford eyes were and the crowd went amuck. When the last swearing fan had gone home the arena looked like a earthquake hit it. All which was left of the ring itself was a little strip of bloody canvas. I'd played my hand out and been gyped out of a world's title. When Shifty Jones unlashed my gloves I stood at the ropes and stared 'em as far from me as I could throw.

KING RICHARD I.

RICHARD, SHREWDLY FIGURING THAT HIS INTERESTS IN ENGLAND WERE NOT JEOPARDIZED, MADE HIS MOTHER QUEEN REGENT, WHILE HE HIMSELF REMAINED IN NORMANDY. HE WAS NONE TOO SURE BUT THAT PHILIP, KING OF FRANCE, MIGHT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE SITUATION TO CAPTURE NORMANDY. FOR IN THOSE TIMES, KINGS WERE ALLIES ONE DAY AND DEADLY ENEMIES THE NEXT, MUCH AS NATIONS ARE TODAY.

By Dr. Elliot Shoring, The Noted Historian

RICHARD PROMPTLY SHOWED HIS QUALITIES AS AN ABLE RULER BY COLDLY DISMISSING ALL HIS OWN FORMER FRIENDS AND ADMIRERS, WHO HAD TAKEN PART WITH HIM IN HIS REBELLIONS AGAINST HIS FATHER. HE RE-MARKED: "MEN WHO WOULD JOIN ME IN REBELLING AGAINST MY FATHER WOULD JOIN ANYBODY ELSE IN REBELLING CIRCUMSTANCES, NOW THOUGHT HE COULD SEE THE WICKEDNESS OF REBELLION AND TREASON TO WHICH HE HAD, BEEN QUITE BLIND BEFORE."

CLEVERLY DEVELOPED

Here is the way Paris combines the plain silks with the new striped effects that usher in the fall season. Skirt and blouse trimmings are of finely striped casha, while the blouse is of flat crepe. The blouse has a V-shaped neck with a bias tie-collar, and slips on over the head. The skirt gains width by means of a fan plait at the center of the front. Medium size requires 1 1/4 yard 36-inch plain silk, with 1 1/4 yard 54-inch striped material and 1 1/4 yard lining for underbody.

COOLIDGE BANS ARMS PACT FOR THREE POWERS

By JOHN T. LAMBERT
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 1.—President Coolidge today banned a three-power pact with Great Britain and Japan for further limitation of naval armament.

Unless France and Italy come in, there will be not the slightest prospect of a naval cut.

Great Britain informed the United States, as far back as the Washington naval conference, that to abandon the naval vessels that are necessary for protection against submarine warfare would be to imperil her own safety.

President Coolidge is convinced that England would not yield that attitude now. France has the largest submarine force in the world. To attempt to persuade England to curtail her defensive naval forces while France, staying out of a conference, could continue to upbuild her navy, would be unfair to England as well as fruitless. President Coolidge is understood to believe.

Acceptance by England and Japan of the United States' invitation to a five-power naval parity for limitation of submarines, modern cruisers and destroyers today caused President Coolidge to cling to the slender hope that the conference may yet be realized.

Rejection of the invitation by both France and Italy has not been accepted as final by the administration. Pressure upon both of them will be exerted by the American commission to the Geneva conference, which will resume in three weeks.

"KID BROTHER" OPENS TODAY AT THE CALIFORNIA

Harold Lloyd celebrates his fifth year as a producer of feature length comedies, by giving his legion of followers "The Kid Brother," which ranks high among his finest contributions. In this work, as in all past productions, Lloyd again demonstrates his complete grasp on the answer to that eternal problem, "What does the public want?" If past successes count for aught, the bespectacled comedian knows exactly what his public demands because in the five years that have elapsed since that immortal classic, "Grandma's Boy," he has made one continuous string of successes.

Lloyd holds the unique distinction, according to those who have followed his office figures for the last decade, of being the only player in motion pictures who has never produced a financial "flop," either for himself or the exhibitor.

In "The Kid Brother," Harold's latest Paramount release, which arrives at the California theatre today, he is said to have another of those sure-fire laugh getters, reminiscent in theme of "Grandma's Boy," with its inferiority complex theme. If it were only half as good as that production it would still be a knockout.

Lloyd's five-year record is one which defies comparison from any source. Starting with "Grandma's Boy," he produced "Dr. Jack," "Safety Last," "Why Worry," "Girl Shy," "Hot Water," "The Freshman" and "For Heaven's Sake." For the last three years, beginning with "Girl Shy," he has been producing independently.

Basically, Lloyd's success in the feature comedy field may be summed up in his own few words: "Make them funny, but keep them human." He led the way out of the rut of old comedy hokum, by giving the screen stories that had logic and reason, not just a hodge-podge of slapstick.

Other features include "Mona Lisa," all in natural colors, with Hedda Hopper and Crawford Kent; "Peeking at Planets"; "International News," and Larry Canelo at the organ.

THE CANADIAN WITH MEIGHAN IS AT RICHMOND

The Canadian, Thomas Meighan's latest Paramount picture, coming to the Richmond theatre today and tomorrow, is a story of the loneliness of the Canadian wheat fields, of helpless dependence on the vagaries of the weather, of the strength and optimism of those building a new empire, and of the overwhelming effect it has on the sensibilities of an aristocratic English woman suddenly thrust into these open spaces. It is the tale of a man struggling against the elements, with no time for the delicacies of courtship, but who finally succeeds in winning her love.

From advance reports, it would seem that "The Canadian" is quite the best thing Tom has ever done. William Beaudine directed Arthur Stringer adapted the Somerset Maugham play for screen use. Mona Palma, Dale Fuller and Wyndham Standing head the star's supporting cast.

Other film features on the same program include "A Rainy Knight," a Mack Sennett comedy; "Prizma," the screen magazine, and a Grantland Rice "Sportlight."

TWO HUNDRED ARE PERILED IN MINE DISASTER

LONDON, March 1.—Two great coal pit disasters in which seventy-five men are estimated to have lost their lives occurred today.

Two hundred miners were working this morning at Cwm in Rhyl-Cale in one of the most modern mines in South Wales when a big explosion dislodged a hundred tons of coal which formed a barrier against the victims entombed a mile and a half away.

Eighty men and boys have been rescued. One body had been recovered and ten bodies have been seen but not recovered and 35 men are still entombed behind the big coal barrier.

All hope of rescuing these have been abandoned and the death roll at Cwm is estimated at 62.

After hours of heroic rescue work amid clouds of poisonous fumes and terrific heat, the board of trade inspectors this afternoon ordered all work to cease until the gas filled mine has been ventilated.

All the male members of some families were wiped out. A father and four sons perished in one instance. One man who had reached the shaft unhurt returned when he learned that his brother had been entombed and the former's body was later found in one of the gas filled galleries.

An hour after the Welsh disaster a hundred tons of water piping in a shaft at Bilsborough Colliery, Nottinghamshire, crashed down the shaft. Eight men were descending the pit at the time.

The collapse of the cage and the flooding of the workings is believed to have resulted in the loss of 14 lives.

School Board Of San Pablo May Vote New Bonds

The San Pablo board of education will convene in special session Thursday night to discuss another election to vote upon bonds for the construction of additional classrooms to the San Pablo school, it was reported here yesterday.

Two previous bond issues failed to carry, due principally, it was said, to the indebtedness already on the district.

The San Pablo school board is composed of Lawrence Silva, clerk, Fritz Carfield and Joseph Azavedo.

The Dollar Mark—

The origin of the dollar mark is a disputed matter. One theory is that the symbol is derived from the figure 8, which was imprinted on old Spanish dollars, commonly called "pieces of eight." Another is that the sign is a corrupted monogram of the letters "U. S."

To most of us the question is of academic interest only. More important is the necessity for accumulating a reserve of actual dollars. For that purpose an American Trust savings account, earning interest at four per cent compounded semi-annually, is very useful.

(By Universal Service)

ATLANTA, Ga., March 1.—Stockholders at the annual meeting of the Coca Cola company declared a stock dividend, issuing one share for each share outstanding, payable April 15. This action increased the common capital stock of the company from 500,000 to 1,000,000 shares, of no par value. Preparations are being made to list the additional stock on the New York Stock Exchange. A quarterly dividend of $2.50 a share had been declared a month ago.

Friends vs. Profit Producers

The Mechanics Bank, is an independent and locally owned institution, measures its success by what it can put into the community by helpful service, rather than by what it can take out.

The first question asked in determining its policies is: "How can we make this bank a more effective ally of Richmond individuals and concerns?" Service is an all-important consideration.

In dealing with The Mechanics Bank, therefore, you can feel that you enjoy the status of a valued friend, not merely a source of possible profit.

Raise Fees For Boxing Contests

(By Universal Service)

TRENTON, March 1.—Decision boxing bouts and an increase of from $25 to $50 in the maximum admission fees are provided under a bill passed by the lower house in session early today. The bill was sponsored by Assemblyman Altman, of Atlantic, Republican.

The bill would empower boxing Commissioner Bugbee to decide whether decision bouts with maximum fees may be held.

The object of the bill is believed to be to draw important prize fights to New Jersey again. A maximum price of admission of $50 was permitted at the time of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight at Boyles Thirty-Acres. This was reduced to $25, however, and the latter has been in force ever since.

Dubs Will Have Chance To Shine In This Tourney

Disgruntled golfers of the Carquinez Golf club will be given an opportunity to blow off steam on Sunday, March 9, when the Blithing tournament will be played at the club course. It was announced by Arthur A. Alston, secretary, yesterday.

All restrictions of the popular game will be thrown to the four winds, when contestants are in groups of nine with the sole purpose of leading the opposition into error.

For once the members will be allowed to express their candid opinions of each other's merits, as talking, and even shouting will be permitted. As all players put at once there will be an added menace of balls flying in all directions, with perhaps a club handle or two.

The meet will proceed as an elimination contest with the two lagging players at each hole dropping out. The object will be to hinder as much as possible the progress of the players, as it takes about nine holes and two and a half hours for each round of the event, there will be plenty of opportunity for the contestants to loom up as so many Blithing idiots. The final winner will be heralded after the merry-go-round of eliminations has reached a climax.

U. S. DELIVERS SECRET NOTE TO MEXICANS

By WILLIAM P. FLYTHE

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The United States has delivered a new note to Mexico which officials today regarded as of the greatest importance.

The state department refused to discuss its nature in any way. Seldom has such secrecy been employed.

It was definitely established, however, that it does not concern the land and petroleum laws, about which there has already been a tangle exchange, or any other matter which has been discussed before through diplomatic channels.

This gave credence to current reports in diplomatic circles that the United States had lodged a formal protest against alleged Mexican propaganda in this country aimed at the United States' policy toward Mexico and Central America.

According to these reports, the United States has formally objected to Mexico's policy of backing the Sacasa revolution in Nicaragua after this government had recognized Adolfo Diaz as president and had pledged him support. Protest is also made against the alleged shipment of Mexican arms to the Nicaraguan revolutionists, it is reported.

Objection was also taken. It is said, to Mexico's alleged dealing direct with American agencies to influence sentiment here and sending communications other than through established diplomatic channels.

It was pointed out that there is and can be no question of Mexico's right as a sovereign nation to do these things. But it was said that the United States could consider such acts unfriendly and not in keeping with general principles of amity with a neighboring republic which this country has recognized.

Mr. Haskell Completely Relieved
Mr. H. Haskell was very much discouraged after two months of the Fong Wan treatment and wished to quit. He was urged to continue the herbs and was completely relieved after three more months of the Fong Wan Herb. His testimonial follows:

Oakland, Calif.
I suffered for many years from sores of the stomach and from bladder trouble. After years of treatment without results, I became very much discouraged and feared that I should never again be well. One day I saw in the newspaper a testimonial that Mr. P. Oliver had given to the FONG WAN HERB CO. As his case had been similar to mine, I called upon Mr. Oliver and learned from him that everything stated in that testimonial was true. I then began to faithfully take the FONG WAN HERB TREATMENT and after three months I was a well man. At the time of this writing my blood test is negative and my bladder is in splendid condition. 3113 Linden St. HERBERT R. HASKELL.

ANTI-ORIENTAL AGITATION IN CANADA GAINS

By J. J. LARKIN
(By Universal Service)

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—A distinct impetus to the long growing agitation that Orientals in British Columbia be restricted has been given in the charge that Chinese of British Columbia and throughout Canada are and have been sending large sums of money back to China to be used to drive British subjects out of that country.

The accusation is made by A. C. Portway, who recently arrived here from China, and has been delivering a series of addresses before the leading organizations of the city.

Portway in his charge claims that leading Chinese in this city have for well over a year been organizing the Chinese both here and in other Canadian centers in support of the Cantonese movement in China, which he declares is entirely under the control of Russia.

As a result, an agitation has been begun particularly in the ranks of war veterans' organizations looking to the deportation of all Chinese from British Columbia.

Last Rites Are Held For Mrs. Mary Casterlin

Last rites for Mrs. Mary A. Casterlin, who passed away at her home, 651 Eleventh street, Sunday, were conducted at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Willson and Kratzer chapel, Rev. Earl W. Haney, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated at the services.

Following the services the remains were shipped to Kureka last night for interment. Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ripley, son-in-law and daughter of the deceased, accompanied the body.

Mrs. Casterlin had lived in Richmond for many years and was 79 years of age at the time of her death. She is survived by a daughter in Richmond, a sister in New York and several nephews and nieces. Mrs. Casterlin was well known for her activity in church and lodge circles.

THREE GIRL BABIES BORN

Three girl babies were born at the Richmond Maternity hospital yesterday. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. Bonaccorso, 240 Thirteenth street. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Applebaum of Crockett, and Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, 2316 Brooks avenue.

and representations have been made to both the dominion and British Columbia governments seeking repressive legislation.

ARRESTS LOOM IN STABBING AT PITTSBURG

PITTSBURG, March 1.—Arrests loom in the investigation into the stabbing of C. P. Marshall, Pittsburg hotel proprietor, in a fight in the Dearborn Hotel at Antioch Sunday night. A warrant has been issued for an unnamed person charging assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.

Marshall was stabbed five times with an ice pick. Although his right lung was punctured twice and his liver penetrated, physicians stated today that he would probably recover.

The hotel proprietor upon regaining consciousness named a woman as his assailant. Marshall told Deputy Sheriff Ralph Harrison that the fight was precipitated when he and A. Roberts, a Mokolunne river project worker stopped at the hotel to purchase cigarettes.

A girl behind the counter said that she did not have in stock the brand asked for and offered another.

"That's all right, sweetie," Roberts is alleged to have said.

One of the men playing cards at a nearby table, objected to the remark. The difference was finally smoothed out by Marshall. As he was leaving, another man struck him in the face. Roberts struck the man who hit Marshall. The hotel proprietor claims that he then grabbed Roberts and started for the door. A woman and several men blocked their path and the woman stabbed him five times in the right side, Marshall claims.

Marshall had difficulty in breathing and when faced by Constable Evan Thomas the officer believed he had been drinking and arrested both him and Roberts on charges of disturbing the peace. The charge was dismissed yesterday by Justice of the Peace Matt Ward.

Royal Family Entertain 400 At Tea Party

By GERTRUDE LADY DECIES
(By Universal Service)

LONDON, March 1.—Four hundred persons were guests of King George and Queen Mary at an informal tea party at Buckingham Palace this afternoon.

The guests are all prominent in the various walks of life and most of them saw the Queen for the first time when she was not wearing a hat.

The guests were allowed to drop in any time around 4 o'clock and leave at 5 p. m.

Tea, sandwiches and cakes were handed around and consumed at small tables in the various state rooms while the King and Queen walked around and chatted with their visitors.

TO PROSECUTE DOHENY, SON ON BRIBE CHARGES

By JOHN A. KENNEDY
(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Heardened by the sweeping supreme court decision which held the Elk Hills naval oil reserve leases illegal and procured through conspiracy, corruption and fraud, the government today took steps to bring to trial Edward L. Doheny, the oil baron, for alleged bribery growing out of his famous $100,000 "loan" to Albert Bacon Fall, former secretary of the interior.

Doheny and his son, Edward L. Doheny, Jr., are still under indictment for receiving a bribe. An indictment for receiving a bribe is also pending against Fall for accepting the "loan" carried to Fall in the famous "little brown bag" while Doheny's proposal to lease the 32,000-acre oil pool in California was pending before the interior department.

Major Peyton Gordon, United States attorney for the District of Columbia, who aided Owen J. Roberts and Atlee Pomerene, the government's special counsel in the oil leases cases, today announced he will urge upon his colleagues that Doheny be tried on the bribery charges.

"I plan to see Senator Pomerene tomorrow and expect to talk with Mr. Roberts next Saturday," Gordon told Universal Service today. "I will ask them to seek trial of the bribery indictments as soon as the Fall-Sinclair case is disposed of. The cases should be tried by all means."

Trial April 25

If Roberts and Pomerene finally agree to Gordon's plan, it is possible the trial could get under way on April 25, the date when the Sinclair-Fall conspiracy case growing out of the Teapot Dome leases—corruption transactions to the Elk Hills reserve deals—is scheduled to start.

Doheny faces possible litigation from another quarter as a result of yesterday's supreme court decision. It was learned today.

Stockholders of the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport company were discussing in Washington financial circles the possibility of bringing of suit against Doheny to force the former head of the oil company to repay the $10,000,000 which the company spent in building the Pearl Harbor storage tanks and for which the court yesterday refused to grant compensation.

Sinclair May Lose

Doheny loses upwards of $2,000,000 outright as a result of the decision, as he guaranteed that amount for use to complete the building of the Pearl Harbor storage plant.

Harry F. Sinclair's mammoth oil company stands to lose approximately $20,000,000 if the supreme court makes the same decision in the Teapot Dome cases as it did in Doheny civil litigation. The issues upon which the cases are being argued, are practically the same.

STATE AND NAVY DEPARTMENTS CONCEAL FACTS

1,700 American sailors and marines in Nicaragua. Within a week there will be more than 3,000. Twelve battleships and ten airplanes will make up the balance of the American forces in the little Central American republic.

Senator Royal Copeland was notified by the Daily Mirror that this newspaper intended revealing the truth about the Nicaraguan situation.

"I am astounded by the statement that there have been casualties among our boys," said the Senator. He added that he would confer immediately with Senator Dornh, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, and demand a most sweeping investigation. This will mean that Major General Lejune, head of the marine corps, and other officers of that organization will be subpoenaed to tell what they know.

Congress is slated to adjourn in a few days. Senator Copeland believes that state and navy departments have concealed the reports of casualties in order to head off an investigation.

The Americans were killed and wounded in skirmishes with the liberal troops almost a month ago. Machine guns were used by the Nicaraguans in attacks on our forces.

Immediately after the casualties the most rigid censorship was enforced. It is impossible for war correspondents to get to the scenes of fighting or to send any dispatches from Nicaragua that are not censored.

The censorship in Nicaragua is much more rigid than anything ever attempted by the American army during the world war.

Report Is Denied In Official Circles

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The disclosures by the New York Mirror that American marines have been killed in action against Nicaraguan revolutionists created a profound sensation here tonight. While neither Secretary of State Kellogg or Secretary of the Navy Wilbur could be reached for explanations, other officials insisted that the report was without foundation.

"There has not been one casualty among American forces in Nicaragua during the present disturbance," declared Edward Eberle, chief of naval operations. "In fact, the last casualty in Nicaragua was during the 1912-13 outbreak," he added.

Major General John A. Lejune, commandant of the marine corps, also flatly denied that any marines had been either killed or wounded. "I would know of it if they had," he added.

Dog Stands Guard On Master's Grave

(By Universal Service)

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—Standing guard five days on the grave of his master, a sorrow-stricken bulldog defied all the efforts of his master's friends to remove him until eventually it was found necessary to lasso him and haul him by means of the proached.

During the funeral the dog evinced no particular interest. But though he did not go to the cemetery, yet next day he was found sleeping on the freshly-made mound, and venting rage and defiance to all who approached.

Instant hot water at 3 a. m. by turning faucet

Automatic gas water heater brings comfort, convenience

The nearest hot water faucet is always a source of refreshing comfort—with an automatic gas water heater in your home.

It supplies plentiful hot water any time. All you do is turn on a hot water tap for a cupful or gallons of steaming water.

Two kinds of automatic heaters

There is one type of heater called the "Automatic Storage System." It keeps a supply of steaming hot water in the boiler—always ready for use. While another, called the "Automatic Instantaneous Type," heats an endless stream of water at the turn of a faucet. No boiler needed here, for the water heats as it flows through hot coils.
